FIRST EDITION.

FORTY-THIRD CONGRESS.

FIRST SESSION.

The Salary Bill Disposed of by the Senate.

A Bill Introduced Regulating the Tariff on Pacific Railroads.

WASHINGTON, January 12, 1874.

SENATE.

Petition for Woman Suffrage.

Sundry petitions were presented, including one from Elizabeth Cady Stanton, Susan B. Anthony and others, asking that women be allowed to vote, or that the same rights, &c., be extended to them as are given the colored men.

Regulating the Traffic on Pacific Railways.

Mr. INGALLS introduced a bill in reference to carrying freight and passengers on the Union Pacific Railroad and its branches.

It provides that all freight and passenger traffic between Kansas City and Leavenworth, at any point on the line of the Kansas Pacific and Denver Pacific railways, via Cheyenne, Wyoming Territory, to Ogden, at any point on the line of the Union Pacific Railroad, or points beyond its terminus, shall be carried by said companies jointly at the same rates as are charged on similar traffic between Omaha and lake points; but the Union Pacific Company shall not be required to receive upon said traffic a less sum than it would be entitled to receive upon similar traffic over its own road when pro rated to and from Omaha. Suits may be brought and sustained in any United States Court in which any portion of either of said roads is situated, for treble the amount of damages and loss occasioned by a refusal to comply with the foregoing provisions.

The Salary Bill.

The morning hour having expired, consideration of the Salary bill was resumed, the pending question being on the amendment of Mr. Gordon (Ga.) He asked leave to withdraw that amendment, and offered another, providing that the salaries of all commissioned officers in the army and navy whose pay and allowances exceed $3,500 per year, and is less than $5,000, be reduced ten per cent., that the pay and allowance of general staff officers, such as Paymaster General, Quartermaster General, Commodore in the navy, and others, shall not exceed $5,000, that of Rear Admiral in the navy, and Major General in the army shall not exceed $6,000, that of Lieutenant General of the army and Vice Admiral of the navy not to exceed $7,500, that of General of the Army and Admiral of the Navy not to exceed $10,000, that the salary of the President of the United States, after March 3d, 1877, shall be $25,000 per annum, and that the annual appropriations for the next four years for the Executive Mansion shall be $25,000 less than for the four years preceding March 3d, 1873.

Mr. EDMUNDS moved to strike out all that portion of the amendment except the last portion, which relates to the President's salary and the appropriations for the White House. Agreed to.

BAYARD opposed a reduction of the President's salary. He thought $50,000 an exceedingly modest and just compensation. He denied the authority of this Congress to fix future appropriation, as they must be governed by the necessities of the case.

Mr. CONKLING said thus far he had taken no part in this debate. The Senate ought to have acted, and might have acted, on this measure in less than one day. He had no doubt the majority of the Senate favored the repeal, and much time had been wasted. He appealed to every member of the Senate to unite with him in putting an end to this whole subject, in order that the Senate might proceed to the bankrupt law and finance measures, which the country needed.

Mr. Gordon's amendment was further amended so as not to apply to the annual appropriations for the President's house, leaving only the question of salary after March 3d, 1877, to be acted upon. The amendment was then rejected by a vote of 39 nays to 13 yeas.

Mr. CONKLING offered as a substitute for the House bill, as amended by the Senate, that so much of the act of March 3d, 1873, as provides for the increase in the compensation of public officers and employes be repealed, except that portion which affects the salary of the President of the United States and Judges of the Supreme Court, and that hereafter all salaries, with the exception of those named, be the same as they were prior to the passage of that act; provided, that mileage should not be allowed for the first session of the Forty-third Congress; and further, that all back pay not drawn or returned to the Treasury be covered into the Treasury, and declared to be the property of the United States.

In presenting this substitute, Mr. CONKLING said that he offered it to take the place of the House bill and every amendment that the Senate had adopted.

Mr. SHERMAN thought the act of July, 1870, provided that all unexpended balances of appropriations in the Treasury be placed to the credit of the surplus fund, and he saw no necessity for the clause in the substitute of the gentleman from New York, providing for covering money into the Treasury.

Mr. CONKLING hoped there would be a vote on his substitute. He wanted this question of back-pay settled as well as the salary increase. So far as the President's salary is concerned, the Constitution forbids that it be touched now; but as to the other salaries, he hoped they would be put back to the same as they were prior to March 3d, before the salary enactment was made.

Mr. ANTHONY favored $5,000 a year compensation for Congressmen, and thought there should be an allowance for mileage, stationery and postage stamps.

Mr. BOUTWELL thought there should be some provision made for covering this back pay into the Treasury, as the Department had oftentimes no means of knowing what claims against definite appropriations were outstanding.

Mr. WRIGHT hoped there would be an immediate vote on Mr. Conkling's substitute, and the question was disposed of.

Mr. EDMUNDS offered the amendment which he presented a few days ago, providing that the act shall take effect as of March 4th, 1873, and that the accounting officers make rateable monthly deductions from said salaries at a rate necessary to effectuate this provision within nine months next hereafter. Rejected—yeas 8, nays 36.

Mr. HAMILTON offered an amendment fixing the salary of the President at $25,000 per annum after March 4th, 1877. Rejected—yeas 16, nays 43.

Mr. ANTHONY offered an amendment that the provisions of the act shall not affect the salaries of the President, Vice President, members of the Cabinet, nor any employes of the Senate or House of Representatives, or other persons named in the third section of the act of March 3d.

Mr. WRIGHT inquired if the effect of this amendment was not to repeal the law so far as it applied to Senators, Representatives and Delegates in Congress.

Mr. ANTHONY replied in the affirmative.

Mr. WRIGHT said, as he before stated, he did not propose to eat "humble pie" himself, and say Congress did wrong in increasing the salaries of its own members, but right in increasing all others.

The amendment was rejected.

Mr. NORWOOD offered an amendment that the act of June 31st, 1873, repealing the franking privilege be repealed. Rejected.

The question then recurred on the substitute proposed by Mr. Conkling for the House bill and all Senate amendments thereto. The bill was reported in full, as follows:

AN ACT repealing the increase in the salaries of members of Congress and other officers.

Be it enacted, etc., That so much of the act of March 3, 1873, entitled "An act making appropriations for the legislative, executive and judicial expenses of the Government for the year ending June 30th, 1874," as provides for an increase of the compensation of public officers and employes, whether members of Congress, Delegates or others, except the President of the United States and Justices of the Supreme Court, be, and the same is hereby repealed, and the salaries, compensation and allowances of all said persons, except as aforesaid, shall be fixed by the law in force at the time of the passage of said act; provided, that mileage shall not be allowed for the first session of the Forty-third Congress, that all moneys appropriated as compensation to members of the Forty-second Congress in excess of the mileage and allowances fixed by law at the commencement of said Congress, and which shall not have been drawn by the members of said Congress respectively, or which, having been drawn, have been returned in any form to the United States, are hereby covered into the Treasury of the United States, and are declared to be moneys of the United States, absolutely, the same as if they had never been appropriated as aforesaid.

The yeas and nays being ordered, the bill was passed as above reported by the following vote:

Yeas—Messrs. Allison, Anthony, Bayard, Bogy, Boreman, Boutwell, Buckingham, Cameron, Carpenter, Chandler, Clayton, Conkling, Crozier, Davis, Dorsey, Edmunds, Fenton, Ferry (Mich.), Frelinghuysen, Goldthwaite, Hamilton (Md.), Hamlin, Hitchcock, Howe, Ingalls, Logan, McCreery, Merrimon, Mitchell, Morrill (Me.), Morrill (Vt.), Morton, Oglesby, Patterson, Pratt, Ramsey, Robertson, Sargent, Saulsbury, Schurz, Stockton, Sumner, Wadleigh, West, Windom and Wright—50.

Nays—Messrs. Brownlow, Conover, Flanagan, Gordon, Lewis, Norwood, Sprague and Tipton—8.

Mr. COOPER announced that he paired with Mr. Cragin, who would have voted for the bill, and he (Cooper) against it.

Not voting—Messrs. Alcorn, Ames, Dennis, Ferry (Conn.), Gilbert, Hamilton (Texas), Johnston, Jones, Kelly, Ransom, Stewart, and Thurman.

The bill now goes back to the House for the concurrence of that body.

The Currency Question.

Mr. SHERMAN moved that the Senate proceed to the consideration of the resolution reported by the Finance Committee early in the session, declaring it to be the duty of Congress to adopt definite measures to redeem the pledge made in the act of March 18, 1869, and directing the Committee on Finance to report to the Senate at as early a day as practicable, such measures as will not only redeem this pledge, but also furnish currency of uniform value, always redeemable in gold or its equivalent, and so adjusted as to meet the changing wants of trade and commerce. Agreed to.

At 4:30 the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE.

Bills Introduced.

Under the call of States, a large number of bills were introduced and referred.

The Question of Increased Taxation.

The motion made by Mr. Kelly before the holidays to suspend the rules and adopt a resolution declaring it to be the sense of the House that the taxes shall not be increased, but that extraordinary means, if any be required, for the support of the Government shall be obtained by a temporary loan or loans, bearing a low rate of interest in currency, and redeemable in United States notes, came up for action.

On a vote by the House, the resolution was rejected.

Mr. HOLMAN moved to suspend the rules and adopt a resolution declaring that in the judgment of the House there is no necessity to increase the taxation or to increase the public debt by a further loan, if there shall be economy in public expenditures, and that in view of the condition of the national finances, the House will reduce the appropriations and public expenditures to the lowest point consistent with the proper administration of public affairs.

The rules were suspended and the resolution adopted—yeas 221, nays 3.

Mr. HAWLEY moved to suspend the rules and adopt a resolution declaring it to be the sense of the House that the expenditures of the nation can and should be so reduced and regulated that they can be met by the existing taxes, and that in no event should there be an increase of either the interest bearing or non-interest bearing obligations of the Government.

The motion was agreed to without the yeas and nays, and amid some laughter and applause.

Double Track Railway from the East to the West.

Mr. HURLBURT introduced a bill chartering a double track railway from tide water, on the Atlantic, to the Missouri river, and to limit freights thereon. Referred.

Duties on Imported Sugar.

Mr. STYHER offered a resolution reciting that by the abolition of the duty on imported sugar the revenues had been reduced twelve millions, while no reduction had been made in the cost of sugar to the Commissioners, and directing the Committee on Ways and Means to inquire into the expediency of restoring the duties on imported sugars. Referred.

Naval Appropriation Bill.

The House then, at 3 o'clock, went into Committee of the Whole, Mr. E. H. Roberts in the chair, on the Naval Appropriation bill.

General discussion of the bill was carried on by Messrs. Swann, Whitthorne, Beck, Garfield and Niblack. Without making any progress, the committee rose and the House adjourned.

Correspondence of the Pittsburgh Gazette.

WASHINGTON, January 11, 1874.

Important Statistics of our Foreign Trade

Monthly report No. 2 of the Bureau of Statistics, now in press, contains the statistics of our foreign trade for the eight months ended August 31, 1873, as compared with the corresponding period of 1872. The Chief of the Bureau furnishes the following synopsis:

Periods.	Imports.	Domestic Exports, spe. val.	Foreign Exports.
Month ended Aug. 31, 1873	$52,704,576	$39,888,749	$1,741,547
Month ended August 31, 1872	66,880,806	28,657,772	1,683,764
Eight months ended Aug. 31, 1873	442,970,242	396,474,145	17,711,947
Eight months ended Aug. 31, 1872	479,745,647	339,626,929	16,340,310

Of the above the following amounts consisted of merchandise, and of specie and bullion respectively, for the eight months ended August 31, 1873 and 1872:

		Imports.	Domestic Exports, spe. val.	Foreign Exports.
Merchandise	1873	$432,937,289	353,145,327	12,103,781
Specie & bullion		10,032,942	43,328,818	5,608,166
Merchandise	1872	466,278,583	264,333,919	11,237,426
Specie & bullion		13,537,064	75,093,010	5,102,884

The value of foreign commodities remaining in warehouse August 31, 1873, was $72,171,651, against $41,648,960 August 31, 1872.

Allowing for the difference in the warehouse account, the excess of imports over exports during the eight months ended August 31, 1873, was $48,261,459, as compared with the corresponding period of 1872.

Of the total foreign trade during the eight months ended August 31, 1873 and 1872, respectively, the following values were carried in American and foreign vessels, and in cars and other land vehicles:

	Imports.	Domestic Exports, Mixed Values.	Foreign Vessels.
1873.
American vessels	$122,759,730	$101,943,657	$5,848,110
Foreign vessels	310,637,723	342,461,729	9,530,099
Land vehicles	9,532,789	4,478,018	2,324,758
1872.
American vessels	132,602,619	113,331,365	4,915,152
Foreign vessels	334,201,197	276,070,892	8,618,101
Land vehicles	12,941,831	2,517,717	2,806,957

A comparison of the above tables shows that during the eight months ended August 31, 1873, over 73 per cent. of the total trade by water was in foreign vessels, and for the corresponding period of 1872 the value of articles carried in foreign vessels was 71 per cent.

The number and tonnage of vessels engaged in the foreign trade which entered and cleared during the twelve months ended August 31, 1873 and 1872 were as follows:

	ENTERED.		CLEARED.
	No.	Tons.	No.	Tons.
American vessels	11,343	3,848,756	11,707	3,830,326
Foreign vessels	20,451	8,156,906	20,554	8,197,213
Total	31,794	11,905,662	32,261	12,032,449
American vessels	10,893	3,735,289	10,802	3,706,530
Foreign vessels	18,817	7,229,698	18,888	7,167,764
Total	29,710	10,984,387	29,690	10,874,294

The report contains tables showing the foreign trade of the United States from 1821 to 1873, inclusive; area and population of each State and Territory of the United States at each decennial census from 1790 to 1870; foreign countries to which the principal domestic commodities were exported during the fiscal year 1873; number of the various classes of merchant vessels belonging to the several customs districts of the United States, June 30, 1873; emigration from Germany from 1845 to 1870; exports from Cuba; abolition of customs duties on American machinery in Ecuador; and prices of anthracite coal for forty-seven years.

The Approaching Patent Convention.

The Committee of Arrangements for the approaching Patent Convention to meet in this city the 15th inst., of which Dr. Strasburg is Chairman, and C. T. Whiteman, Esq., Secretary, and consisting of Chief Engineer Wood, U. S. Navy, General Chipman and other prominent gentlemen, have perfected all arrangements. The following gentlemen will address the Convention: Judge Holt, Court of Claims, Hon. R. B. Curtiss, Boston, Gen. Leggett, and other distinguished gentlemen. A large number of persons from different parts of the country will be present. Matters of importance relating to American inventors at home and abroad will be attended to. The Convention meets at 10 A. M. Thursday next, in Legislative Hall.

English the Universal Language.

The Chief of the Bureau of Statistics recently received a letter from a scholar in Ballaggio, Italy, asking for information to be embodied in a pamphlet which he is about to publish, showing that the English language will, in the future, be the universal one. The same idea was expressed by the Grand Duke Constantine, President of the Statistical Congress, to Mr. Young, the delegate for the United States, who lamented his inability to converse in any language but the English, when he said: "The English! Why that is the language of commerce."

Amending the National Banking Law.

The question of amending the National Banking law seems to be pretty well recognized by Congress. Randall, of Pennsylvania, has two bills amending the act establishing National banks, and one relative to certifying checks of National banks. Burchard, of Illinois, of the Ways and Means Committee, has a bill retaining the coin interest of National banks as part of their reserve. Maynard, of Tennessee, chairman of the Banking and Currency, has offered a bill to authorize the organization of National banks without circulation; Coburn, Indiana, reducing the capital of National banks; Holman, Indiana, substituting U. S. notes for National bank notes; Waldron, of Michigan, in favor of repealing the appropriations for National bank notes; Field, of Michigan, providing for the interchange of 3.65 per cent. bonds with United States lawful money, and Kelley's convertible bond plan. All of the above, with the exception of the last named, lie slumbering in the Banking and Currency and Ways and Means Committees. The debate on Finance will arise on Kelley's plan when the diversified opinions of the members on this great subject will be made manifest.

Department Clerkships.

Competitions for clerkships in the Government Departments, under the civil service rules, are loud in their complaints at the manner of making appointments. Some of them have certificates notifying them that they have successfully passed the required examination, and it has been hinted to them that it will now require influence to secure them the appointment.

No New National Banks Organizing.

No new national banks are now being organized. Parties to whom circulation has been promised for this purpose are asking for more time, because, on account of the panic, they are not able to get their stock paid up so as to enable them to buy their bonds as security for their circulation.

The Weekly Newspapers and the Franking Privilege.

The weekly newspapers are clamorous for a restoration of the franking privilege in so far as it is applicable to the circulation of their respective editions. Thus far this session twelve bills have been offered in the House, granting the franking privilege to newspapers.

A Deputyship to be Abolished.

Now that the position of First Deputy Commissioner of Internal Revenue has been thrown open to competition under the civil service rules, one of the subordinate deputyships is certain to be abolished. This is the opinion entertained at the Treasury Department. DIAMOND.

Two young ladies have taken the places occupied by two young gentlemen as delivery clerks at Zanesville post office.

THE McKeesport Paragon midly insinuates that that town is ahead of them all, because a woman there has progressed so far in the rights of her sex, as to chew and smoke the "weed." And still we wonder how some locals live.

THERE is but a single district in the State of Pennsylvania that has not now in operation a system of common schools—the small district of Overfield, in the county of Wyoming. In 1864 there were twenty four such recusant districts.

The crop is considered a paying one, though very exhaustive to the soil.

ON Thursday night two gentlemen on the Pacific Express west, were robbed of their pocket-books containing $250. TWO BOYS, named Thomas Kelly and John Montgomery, visited the grocery store of H. G. Sankey, in West New Castle, on Thursday, when Kelly picked up a loaded musket which had been left standing in the room and pointing it at Montgomery, fired, some of the shot entering the right cheek, completely severing his ear from the head. Kelly of course, says he did not think the gun was loaded.

MERCER county has caught the infection and will next season build a number of cheese factories in various parts of the county, mostly on the northern boundry adjoining Crawford county. Factories are now in course of erection, or contemplated, at Jamestown, Mayville, Sheakleyville, Fredonia, and Coolspring or Harthegig; another will commence operation in the spring at Orangeville, located on the Mercer side of the State line.

THE small-pox still prevails in the vicinity of Scranton. The Republican says: "In a house where an illiterate, yet law-abiding citizens keeps a temperance saloon this disease found its way. The owner of this place wishing to give notice to his neighbors of its presence, wrote with a lead pencil on the stave of a barrel the sign "Small Boxes." A tobacconist living near desiring to purchase some small boxes stepped in to inquire the price of the article, but was non-plussed when he learned that instead of having small boxes for sale they had two real cases of small-pox in the house.

OHIO BREVITIES.

THE Miner says the census of Nelsonville, just completed, shows a population of 2,361, an increase of 1,271 since 1870. There have been ninety-six stores and dwellings built there during the past year, at a total cost of $112,000.

JOHN QUAYLE, of Newburgh, goes way ahead of the Williamsfield man in making big profits on a cow. The latter cleared but fifty-three dollars per cow and Mr. Quayle made a profit of eighty-one dollars and eighty-three cents per cow.

Two boys, Edward Casey and Michael McGlinty, aged respectively 11 and 12 years, are in prison at Cleveland charged with the murder of a playmate by drowning. It is thought that there is no ground for the charge, and that the boy was accidentally drowned while attempting to fish his hat out of the river.

THEY have put temperance movements into a new shape at Washington C. H., Ohio. On New Year's day a procession numbering one hundred and fifty ladies visited the saloons in that place and held prayer meetings. Whenever admission was refused them they would gather around the saloon entrance, offer up a prayer and sing a hymn or two.

A CIRCULAR has been issued to the miners of Ohio by William Thompson, President of the Miners' Convention, calling for prompt and energetic action for the protection of workmen. They are requested to state the number of hours they think they ought to work per day and if a majority are in favor of a "restriction of hours a new policy will be put into effect upon the 1st of April next."

ON Christmas the daughter of George Hart, of Stow, Summit county, was out with her father getting corn stalks. He was loading the sled, and she was driving, resting her feet on the double tree, and bracing her back against the corn stalks, which were placed across the sled. Her feet slipped, and she fell under the heels of the horse. The animal kicked, crushing in her face, and the team began to run. She was dragged or shoved along the ground for some distance before rescued. She died of her injuries on Sunday.

AT Urbana, Thursday, a distressing accident occurred by the careless and reckless use of a pocket pistol, which resulted in the shooting and death of a daughter of Wm. Richter. Mr. Richter's son, a boy about twelve years old, has been in the habit of carrying a small single barreled pocket pistol, and that morning, while he was yet in bed, his brother, a lad nine years old, took it from his vest and snapped it three times at the head of his sister, a little girl seven years of age. The fourth time he snapped the pistol the cartridge exploded and lodged the ball in his sister's temple, from the effects of which she died in about four hours.

SOME weeks ago two itinerant thieves, by the name of Willis and Brinard, burglarized the residences of two of the prominent citizens of Wooster and were caught at it, lodged in jail, tried in court, convicted and sentenced to the penitentiary for three years. On the morning following their sentence, they succeeded in breaking off a bar and escaping into another corridor, where they hid behind an open lattice door, until the Sheriff had passed by them, when they darted out, and swung the heavy iron door shut after them, thus making good their escape, while the cautious Sheriff was left a prisoner. One would naturally have thought that one trick of this kind played upon him would have been enough to have put him on his guard. It has not been many months since the notorious "No Name," alias Snyder, served the Sheriff the same trick precisely. The birds have flown to more congenial climes, and justice is once more cheated out of her just dues.

Mr. Cushing's Nomination for Chief Justice Becoming Unpopular.

A Bill for a Double Track Freight Railway.

Special Dispatch to the Pittsburgh Gazette.

WASHINGTON, January 12, 1874.

The Chief Justiceship.

Ben Butler and a few other prominent Republicans here endorse Cushing's nomination, though a majority strongly condemn it. It is proper to state, however, that President Grant did not nominate Cushing in any captious spirit, but in compliance with the expressed desire of the Senate for a nominee more learned in the law, and because that body had just endorsed him by confirmation of the Spanish mission. If, however, the Senate objects to him for any reason whatever, the President will cheerfully send in another nominee, and yet another, if necessary, until reasonable unamity is reached and a satisfactory candidate obtained. There is no disagreement between the President and the Senate. They who predict a disruption of the Republican party over the Chief Justiceship are wide of the mark. DIAMOND.

Report on the National Finances.

The Committee appointed by the Board of Managers of the Produce Exchange to consider the subject of national finances, made a report, which declares that the restoration of the currency to a specie standard should be kept constantly in view in all national legislation on the subject, but believes the time for the resumption of specie payment has not yet arrived, and should be made to depend not so much on any fixed date, as on the general financial condition of the country; considers the national banking system in the main satisfactory, and should be retained, with amendments, which it proposes; deplores the emergency that called for the temporary use of any portion of the forty-four millions legal tender reserve, and recommends that Congress shall provide for the resumption of specie payment by taking measures for the accumulation of not less than two hundred millions gold.

The Situation at Cartagena.

MADRID, January 12—The Official Gazette this morning contained the following intelligence from Cartagena:

On Sunday evening a committee of the Red Cross Society and three Cartagenian officers arrived at General Dominquez's headquarters. They brought a letter from the President of the insurgent Junta, asking for a suspension of hostilities and the appointment of joint commissions of Government and Cartagenian officers, to consider the conditions of a surrender. General Dominquez rejected their proposals, and gave the insurgents until noon to-day to make an unconditional surrender. He, however, promised a pardon to all who before the expiration of that time gave themselves up with their arms, except the members of the Junta, ordinary criminals, who are to be dealt with by the tribunals, liberated convicts, who will be compelled to serve out the terms of their sentences, and deserters from the armies of Spain, whose cases are to be disposed of by the Minister of War. With this reply the committee retured to the city.

The Government is confident that a surrender will be effected to-day. Before these negotiations were opened, the insurgent leader Galvez, with 2,000 men, made an unsuccessful attempt to recover Atalaya Castle.

THE COURTS.

YESTERDAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

Court of Oyer and Terminer.

[Before Judges Sterrett and Collier.]

In this Court the Scheuttler murder case was called at ten o'clock. There was a large attendance of persons outside in the hall desirous of gaining admittance to the Court Room, but the officers of the Court kept them back, acting under orders, and none but witnesses and parties interested were admitted.

The circumstances of this case are still fresh in the minds of our readers. It occurred in October last. The victim was Mrs. Braunlein, an old woman living in poverty in a house on the hill, who was found one morning lying dead in her room, with a bloody hatchet at her side, showing the weapon by which the deed was committed. The remainder of the house was occupied by the Scheuttlers, and they were at once arrested, and after the Coroner's inquest were committed to jail on a charge of murder.

When the case was called yesterday morning the three defendants were brought into the court room—Lizzie Killian, alias Scheuttler, John Scheuttler, her reputed husband, and Mrs. Catharine Scheuttler, mother of the latter. They did not seem much impressed with the circumstances surrounding them.

District Attorney Bayne and W. C. Moreland, Esq., appeared on behalf of the Commonwealth, while Messrs. Thomas M. Marshall, William D. Moore, J. J. Siebeneck and John Coyle, were the counsel retained for the defense.

When the Court was ready to proceed Mr. Moore moved the Court for a continuance of the case, on account of the absence of Thomas M. Marshall, one of the counsel for the defense, who is sick. In case of the refusal by the court of this motion, he asked for a severance, and moved that the trial of John Scheuttler first take place.

District Attorney Bayne opposed the motion, and the court, after some consultation, decided that the case should go on.

The prisoners were then arraigned in due form. The indictment read by Clerk McGunnigle contained five counts, and charged each of the defendants with being principals as well as accessories before and after the fact.

While this indictment was being read the lawyers were engaged in looking over the other papers, and it was evident that a discovery had been made. After the prisoners had been arraigned.

District Attorney Bayne created surprise by moving that the case be postponed by reason of the illness of Mr. Marshall.

Mr. Moore (jumping up)—I object to a postponement, your Honor, on that ground. The Court has already overruled a motion to that effect and ordered the trial to proceed, and I will consent to a postponement only on the real reason for the motion.

It was then developed that the real reason was of an informality in the drawing of the panel.

The Clerk of the Court in issuing the venire for jurors, had failed to affix the seal of the Court, as is required by law, and of the counsel for the defense discovered this during the reading of the indictment to the prisoners. Under the circumstances the jurors could not be compelled, nor would a verdict given by such a jury be legal.

The Court held a brief consultation over the matter and then the case was postponed.

It will require two weeks to summon a jury again, but in the meantime cases of misdemeanor can be disposed of as usual, provided, we are informed, that both parties are willing. It is stated, too, that in misdemeanor cases, after the prisoners have been arraigned, no objection on account of such a defect in the venire can be sustained.

Court of Common Pleas.

[Before Judge Stowe.]

The case of Wall vs. Wall was submitted to the jury.

A verdict for $46.11 was returned for plaintiff in the case of Drape vs. Onions, an action on a promissory note.

A verdict for $52.80 was rendered for plaintiff in the case of Elliott & Burgess vs. Pain & Ablett, an action on a promissory note.

The bond of James Martin, Alderman of the Thirty-fifth ward, was presented and approved.

District Court.

[Before Judges Kirkpatrick and White.]

In Judge White's branch the case of J. V. Rowland vs. Garrison & Co., is on trial.

In the case of Rose McCabe vs. Mary A. McDermott, in which a verdict was rendered for plaintiff for $5,000, for slander, a motion was made by defendant's counsel for a new trial.

In Judge Kirkpatrick's branch the case of Wm. Williams vs. the Lawrenceville & Evergreen Passenger Railway Company, William Dean and Samuel McElhaney, was taken up and is still on trial. This is an action in trespass vi et armis for alleged infringement of defendants on the property of the plaintiff in the construction of the railway.

CITY ENGINEER'S ANNUAL REPORT.

The Work Done During the Past Year—An Interesting Resume—Suggestions and Recommendations.

Alexander Dempster, City Engineer, yesterday afternoon presented in Common Council his annual report for 1873. He states that during the past year 16,777 feet of streets were completed, costing $233,905 03. At the close of 1873, 46,544 feet were unfinished, costing $235,830.64, 4,466 feet of brick and 10,012 feet of pipe sewerage were constructed at a cost of $225,676.94, and 98,420 feet of streets were opened last year. In other words 15 70-100 miles of streets were completed and unfinished at a cost of $489,735. 5 27-100 miles of sewerage were constructed at a cost of $225,676. Two miles of board walks were laid at a cost of $5,763. 18 64-100 miles of streets were opened, and 58 27-100 miles of surveys were located. Total cost of construction $701,175. The annual expense of the Engineer's office was as follows: Construction, $20,078.55, and surveys, $13,691.20. The Engineer recommends a modification of the Penn avenue act and its supplements so that the city can have the option of accepting instead of being obliged to accept a street from the improvement commissioners. He suggests that a harder stone be used for "top dressing" the roads within the city, in lieu of the soft material now used, and also draws attention to the dangerous condition of Second avenue beyond Glenwood crossing. He recommends that the example of the Washington City authorities in the paving of streets be followed, and says that the Vulcantine pavement has met with the most favor in that city, as possessing superior merits, and costs only about $3,50 per square yard. The report of the Wooden Pavement Committee he claims, shows the comparative worthlessness of wooden pavements and he thinks stone pavements are too expensive. He recommends a change in the law in order to allow the payment of assessments for main sewers in installments, and favors the extension of the Thirty-third street sewer as soon as practicable. The subject of bridges he says is assuming great importance. On the question of grades and the various private interests frequently brought in conflict thereby he says: "Judging by the experience of the past two years I think it would be well to stake off proposed grades on the ground, and notify the owners of property along the line, that upon an appointed day they would be heard by the proper authorities relative thereto, and after each hearing let such grade be established as shall be deemed best, and recommended to Council for adoption. When adopted, let it stand irrevocable, except in extreme cases. The advantages that would occur from such a proceeding, are very apparent." He further adds, "It is worthy of notice that many people take every method to evade the payment of assessments and many and every assessment is deemed unjust without regard being paid to the benefits accruing therefrom." The report concludes by commending the efficiency of his assistants, Messrs. Martin, Roe, Bingaman and Crouch, and the engineer returns thanks for the courtesies that have been extended to him by all.

KING, REED & CO.

TUESDAY, JANUARY 13, 1874.

BONDS at Frankfort 97½.

PETROLEUM at Antwerp 30f.

GOLD closed in New York yesterday at 112.

AT THE election of United States Senator by the Ohio Legislature to-day, Judge Thurman will, of course, be continued in Senate as his own successor. Ex-Governor Noyes will receive the compliment of the Republican vote.

JUDGE KELLY's convertible bond proposition, the peculiarities of which we have frequently explained, has had a favorable reception in the House, indicating that it fairly reflects the policy to be developed as regards the currency.

THE strongest argument against the death penalty is that it is brutal. Unfortunately, it occasionally happens that the execution of prisoners is attended with unnecessary brutality. The latest instance is that of the hanging of Mechellas, at Jersey City. The poor wretch was strangled by brute force, in a manner said to be little short of the horrible.

IT IS intimated that our relations with Spain are such, owing to the failure of the Castelar Government, that the President, and Sherman, and others, insist that the war and naval appropriations shall not be reduced, as both those branches of the public service may be actively employed. The Serrano Government, it is thought, will feel itself compelled to treat this country harshly, in evidence that it has no sympathy with Castelar's policy. Hence the danger of an explosion.

THE Democratic City Executive Committee have called primary meetings and a convention to nominate city officers. This indicates that they propose making an active canvass. We have not the slightest objection to their taking the initiative, but the Republican City Executive Committee should see to it that proper preparations are made to put a good ticket in the field as promptly as possible. If a good ticket is nominated, the fact that the Democrats as a party, make nominations, is all the better. It will concentrate the Republican vote.

IN NEW ORLEANS, the Kellogg Legislature has before it, and is likely to pass, a Constitutional amendment, looking to the funding of the State debt at sixty cents on the dollar,—the interest on the new funded debt to be provided for by a tax fixed by the new provision. Those who have made a study of Louisiana financial affairs claim that this is the only alternative short of [illegible] confine the debt of the State to the present amount—a course that will give a new impetus to business and increased prosperity to the State.

THE new City Charter is to be printed in pamphlet form in order that its several points may pass under inspection. We do not entertain the opinion that there are so many and such violent changes in the document as have been intimated, not that this is the chief difficulty with the new instrument. The fact that it was not signed till after the date when the new Constitution is understood to have taken effect is the point on which the new charter stands or falls, and the latter, it would seem, is likely to be its fate, judging from an interview which appears in our local columns this morning.

THE change from approval to disapproval, in the case of Cushing, is well expressed by the New York Evening Post, and the reasons why he should not be confirmed are well epitomized in the following item: "Almost everybody, at first blush, is inclined to approve it, and to hope that it will be at once confirmed by the Senate. But a second thought recalls his advanced age, his want of solid judgment, his restless vanity, his infirmities of temper, and the fact that for the last ten years he has not been at all in sympathy with the pronounced policy of the Republic. These considerations ought to have their influence with the Senate."

WE HAVE already pointed out the real meaning of the peculiar tactics resorted to in the Senate to defeat the salary repeal bill. Says an Eastern journal on the same subject, "Fearing the success of this bill finally, the Senators then began some ingenious tactics to divert attention from the main point. Mr. Edmunds, of Vermont, moved amendments to the House bill, which were apparently a great relief, for thereupon the debate turned entirely away from the proposition to substitute the Senate bill. Messrs. Clayton, of Arkansas, Kelly, of Oregon, and Gordon, of Georgia, were also conspicuous in the effort to smother the measure by dilatory motions. It is well to watch the course of the debate in the Senate, in order to know upon whom to place the responsibility of defeating absolute repeal, if that shall be the result of these tactics." We assure the honorable Senators that the people understand the movement clearly.

WE have hesitated about discussing McClure's election bill for two reasons,—it is quite sure to be materially amended so that what may be said about the original will have little relevancy to what it will be, within an hour after it comes under discussion. The other reason is, we believe some election bill should be passed very promptly, to provide for the February elections in the cities. What will be wise, we think, will be to re-commit the bill, and all the amendments that may be offered, to the proper committee, that out of what is submitted, an acceptable bill may be framed, and submitted to the Senate. It will still further expedite matters, if a similar bill is introduced and read in the House, amendments offered, and these referred to a House committee. The two committees might agree on a bill that could be passed without unnecessary delay. We think the objections to McClure's bill are well understood, and the remedy necessary is equally well known. It is important that time be saved, and our suggestions look to this result.

THE Post publishes three excerpts from the GAZETTE to prove a change of attitude on the part of this journal, relative to Caleb Cushing. In all three, we speak doubtingly of his politics, believing him a Democrat, if anything, which, of course, was inconsistent, as seen by the Post. We objected to his being appointed diplomatically to Madrid, but accepted his mission as a mere attorney, to do certain special work. The Post thinks this inconsistent. We commended, on the score of ability his nomination as Chief Justice, but excepted in two particulars, his politics, and a selection outside the Supreme Bench. There has enough developed since that was written, to convince us that these points should be made prominent over those of a commendatory character. The papers which commended his appointment to Madrid, without exception condemn his appointment as Chief Justice; and there is no inconsistency. What we first said of Cushing proves to be strongly true, he is not only a Democrat, but one of the Post's kind—a pro-slavery secessionist during the war, and political vagabond since.

THE PRESS AND CUSHING.

Should the nomination of Cushing for Chief Justice be held in abeyance by the Senate for a few days, there will, undoubtedly, be a strong party pressure brought against his being confirmed at all. The Judiciary Committee reported him for confirmation, and but for an objection from Senator Morton, a vote of confirmation would have promptly followed. Following this, Mr. Cushing's record is being closely scrutinized, with the view of ascertaining whether his elevation might not involve the danger of dangerous decisions. His political record is one of great importance.

The Washington Chronicle objects to the democratic and pro slavery antecedents of Mr. Cushing, and says that as Chief Justice he might, at the ripe age of seventy-four, reverse opinions given as Attorney General (under Pierce's administration) twenty years earlier; but that "what is bred in the bone may not come out in the flesh in his case" and that "if the Senate, three-fourths Republican, should confirm him for this exalted position we advise the Democrats to nominate him for President in 1876." The New York Herald sees in the nomination, so suddenly conferred on Mr. Cushing, a disposition on the part of the President to trifle with the Senate. We do not think this, although such a construction is possible. The New York Times says of him: "As a supporter of the Dred Scott decision, as an advocate of the slave power, as a Whig who became a Democrat, as a politician whose place was never fixed from one week to another, as a gentleman who strongly objected to hear the patriotic tunes of the North during the war, as a partisan of the cause which the Northern people detested—in all these capacities Mr. Cushing has distinguished himself. It can scarcely be his achievements in these directions which have moved the President to select him as Chief Justice." The New York Tribune, which cannot be accused of special subserviency, either to the President or the Republican party, is moved to say that "this nomination goes beyond the line of justifiable tolerance. Coming from an Administration which has been kept in power solely because its supporters believed that any change would endanger the results of the war, this is an extraordinary choice. Simply because he is a familiar and serviceable friend, General Grant proposes to place at the head of the Supreme Court, to decide upon questions involving the national sovereignty and the civil rights acquired by the war and consecrated by the late amendments to the Constitution, a pro-slavery Democrat, whose last public function was that of Franklin Pierce's Attorney General, and whose views have been notoriously in opposition to those by virtue of which the war was carried on, slavery was destroyed, and the rights of citizenship extended to all classes of Americans."

From private sources in the city of Washington, we have a fuller account of what Cushing has been, politically. He was Pierce's Attorney General, Buchanan's adviser, and Jerry Black's defender; was selected by Andrew Johnson as a proper person to revise the laws; was an extreme State's Rights man of the Jeff Davis and Yancey school. He presided at a meeting in 1860 where Yancey declared "that the election of Lincoln would justify rebellion," and, it is said, endorsed this sentiment. He has condemned and bitterly opposed the principles on which the Republican party was founded; for such a person to interpret the Constitution on points at issue between the two parties is to accept a very grave danger.

The Chicago Tribune agrees with the view we have taken. It regrets that the President has not selected a Chief Justice from those already on the Bench, or from the ranks of the many able Judges in the Circuit or District Courts, or from among the eminent lawyers at the Bar whose attainments are not burdened by the extreme age which Mr. Cushing has already reached. As we said on Saturday, the Supreme Bench can be looked to for men quite as suitable in ability, and unobjectionable in other respects. But to this we now add that selections can be made from among members of the bar that will, at the least, be vastly more acceptable to the country.

PERSONAL.

MR. H. GARRETSON, late Chief Commissioner to the Vienna Exhibition, intends to remain in Italy during the winter.

MRS. SARAH ALDRIDGE, said to be the widow of Tom Sayers, the pugilist, was lately fined at the Marylebone police court, in London, for neglecting the education of two of her children.

IT IS announced that General Hawley will not be a candidate for the next United States Senatorship in Connecticut, preferring to remain in the House, to which he expects with reason to be reelected.

MRS. JULIA WARD HOWE asserts that while men riot and revolutionize, "there is nothing but dumb submission for women." Which the Kingston Freeman supplements with the sympathetic remark that "Julia's dumbness is one of the most affecting spectacles of the age."

A MARRIAGE took place in Norfolk, Va., recently, to which the contracting parties were a bridegroom of 67 summers and the bride 24. This is his fourth marriage, the three preceding yielding the fruits of 39 children, 20 of whom are now living, and he has 40 grandchildren, and yet the end is probably not yet.

QUEEN VICTORIA has, upon the recommendation of Mr. Gladstone, granted to Lady McClure, the widow of the discoverer of the Northwest Passage, a pension of £100 per annum from the civil list. The late Vice Admiral Sir R. McClure died intestate, consequently his widow only became entitled to one-third of the property, which was sworn under £5,000.

CHANG and Eng, the Siamese twins, are settled in North Carolina. They each a very good farm, adjoining each other, and both have families. They stay alternately two weeks at a time at each other's farm. Both have children, who have a fine education, and one of the twins had a daughter recently married. They have good residences on their farms, and are successful farmers.

THE beautiful daughter of Captain Wells, of the United States corvette Shenandoah, was lately married on board of that vessel at Villafranca, Italy, to Lieutenant Reeder, of the navy, Rev. Dr. McVicker officiated. The vessel was decked with the flags of all nations, and many were the choice gifts. The marines made a joyful noise with cannon, after which the happy couple started for Paris. A feature of the occasion, by the way, was the presentation to Captain Wells of the Cross of the Legion of Honor in the name of President Thiers, representing the Republic of France. The honor was conferred on Captain Wells a year ago, but owing to his absence from French ports he had no opportunity of receiving it.

SIR REGINALD BARWELL, Baronet, believing some letters traducing him to have come from Admiral James Ryder Barton, is now prosecuting the latter in London for libel. At a late examination into the case the Admiral denied that he had ever written an anonymous letter during his 80 years of life, and charged that there was a conspiracy against him of his discarded favorites, among whom were Major General Roche, and Lord Trimbtown. He also declared that Sir Reginald, being impecunious, was the tool of these parties in their work of defaming him, who had always been called "one of the most gallant officers that ever served under orders, and an ornament to my profession."

Oleomargarine.

Oleomargarine is the name of the artificial butter which, having had such an extensive sale in London and Paris, is now becoming popular in New York and Boston. There are two of these oleomargarine factories in New York. They produce daily 19,000 pounds, which, with the product of other factories in the vicinity of the metropolis, makes the yield more than twenty-three tons per day. The butter is made from the yellow, tasteless and odorless oil that is obtained from beef suet. This oil is placed in churns, with one-fifth its weight of sour milk, and churned until an emulsion is formed, anatto being added to give it the required color. It is then cooled and worked and salted like common butter. It is estimated that four thousand tons (eight million pounds) of his artificial butter have been consumed in this country during the last eight months. What the effect of the increased use of the article will have upon the cow question is a problem which we leave to the grangers and students of natural history.

NEW BRIGHTON AND BEAVER FALLS.

A New Light Arisen on the People—The New Gas Works in Operation—Enthusiasm Over the Matter—The Projector and Builder of the Works Serenaded—General Joy in the Cities of the Valley—Water Works and Consolidation Next.

Correspondence of the Pittsburgh Gazette.

NEW BRIGHTON, PA., January 10, 1874.

Happy, indeed, are the favored people of New Brighton and Beaver Falls to-night, and no blame is to be attached to them, if, perchance, their demonstrations partake of the character of boisterousness. A new light has arisen on our people, and as neighbor kindly greets neighbor, on the friendly street corners, or beneath the shelter of their favorite resorts, no longer is the light of the moon or the candle necessary to see each others' faces or note the kindling of the eye. Those worthy souls, the "oldest inhabitants," are in the maze of the most utter astonishment, and are willing to forego the pleasure of declaring that the "old times are better than the new." The truth is that gas was let on to-night, and as the spark was applied, a halo of glory settled down over the cities of the valley.

In Beaver Falls, that usually quiet and orderly little city, I am assured there was the most intense enthusiasm over the matter, and several funny things came to pass. Quiet men, whose eloquence had never before gone beyond a request for dinner, burst forth in strains of poetic beauty over the great event of the day and night. One speaker even eclipsed the prophet of 1867, in his predictions of the future of this great city. He edified his hearers in apostrophes to the sun, moon and stars, comparing the light from the street lamps to their glory and brightness, saying that as the light from the lamps on the streets and that from the windows of the shops vied with the luminary of the night and his fellow travelers in the azure vault for supremacy in the kingdom of light, so did their noble city vie with, and should eventually excel, the boasting and arrogant cities of this great land, who, in their pride, lifted their heads in lofty scorn and contempt above those of their less fortunate sisters. And all this, and much more, too, remember, simply because they could see how to get home at night without breaking their heads against window shutters, getting provokingly tangled up in wheelbarrows (an infernal machine of the nineteenth century, intended to break the peace of night pedestrians), and wading through abysses of mud.

In New Brighton, the people are very quiet, modest folks, who don't often get excited over small matters, and if they do, simply stand still and enjoy themselves. Well, they enjoy themselves to-night very much. The street corners and groceries were filled with the happy folks, who stood with arms akimbo, in silent admiration of the scene. Not a speech was made, not a tone of approval, but they drank it in until their joyous hearts were all alive with a patriotic fervor. Still there are some things that will cause us to break the bounds of propriety and give vent to our feelings. But they are occasions that would waken the spirit of gladness in any heart. One of these is the appearance of our noble fire engine on the street, and another is the sweet strains of melody, that are blown from the horns of our Cornet band, on great occasions. About ten o'clock to-night our gallant friend Charley Winters and his gallant boys of the band, came forth and discoursed inspiring music to the bursting souls of our citizens. Ah! it was a scene long to be remembered. The glad hearts of the people overflowed, and in the serenity of their joy they were ready for anything that did not disturb their quiet. But the band meant business, so they quietly wended their way to the residence of our good townsman, Dr. Connelly, the projector and builder of the gas works. Those of the people whose eyes did not hang heavy fell into line, and ere long the Doctor and his pleasant family were besieged by these jolly folks, who desired to unburden their hearts on the great occasion. The procession was only stopped when it arrived beneath the portals of the Doctor's residence, on the banks of the murmuring Beaver. The Doctor's works were carried in a short time, and this sweet toned crowd effected an entrance into the house and made ready for work. Some very beautiful speeches were made in response to the toasts offered (which, by the way, were drank—not in the bowl of intoxication) and a general good time was had. Not desiring to tell tales out of school, it were perhaps better that I should not report to you the speeches made. They were worthy of the native eloquence of our valley and produced astonishing results in the minds of the hearers.

You would hardly think that this work were equal to that of the Hoosac tunnel, and I don't suppose it was, but when one gets under the influence of an eloquent after-refreshment speech, it is hard to tell where his credulity will lead him, and some how or other, when I got away from the kind Doctor and his family I was under the impression that there was but one thing that was in any way equal to our gas works in this broad land, and that was our valley itself, the glories of which—are they not in the chronicles of "Beaver Valley?" The Doctor made his night callers feel that their line had fallen in a pleasant place, and under the skillful hands of the fair ones of the family, they were treated to the creature comforts in a way that will not soon be forgotten. It was midnight before the serenaders allowed the town to resume its usual quiet and enjoy the comfort of their gas.

This we trust is the wedge that shall burst asunder our clannishness and selfishness, and give to Beaver Valley the chance of becoming more than the seat of a few straggling towns. I have seen some wild idead people to-night, who are so overjoyed that they declare that this is the first of a series of events which shall make our valley great. They told me of water works and consolidation. The gas works being completed, that subject will not much longer give me food for articles, so that I shall be immensely pleased if water works and consolidation are agitated, for then I shall have something to write about.

A great jubilation over the gas is talked of, and if it comes to pass, I will tell you all about it and demonstrate to you what I have tried to impress in this letter, that we are a modest people, a singularly appreciative people, and at the same time about as great people as can well be found in this western section. UNIONTOWN.

Correspondence of the Pittsburgh Gazette.

UNIONTOWN, PA., January 10, 1874.

BRIEF MENTION.

There has been so very little of interest to outsiders, done in our community for the last month or more, that I have kept quiet. A nice little sleighing snow has come and gone; mud however has been the general rule. The school teachers and mams of our county met and gave leave to some of their number to let out some extra gas. The people of the old Keystone State have adopted and are now living under the new Constitution. Many things have occurred, but everybody knew it.

PERSONAL.

The opposition to the Constitution had a very depressing effect on John Collins, Esq., one of our delegates to the Constitutional Convention, and we hoped that its triumphant adoption would restore him to his wonted vigor and health, but there must be something more the matter, as he still keeps near home. Our other delegate, D. Kaine, Esq., was jubilant over the result of the election and has hardly cooled down yet.

J. B. Miller, Esq., generally known as "Uncle Jake," of the Standard, has gone South, in company with Hon. M. Hampton, of your city, but we expect to hear from and be instructed and amused by him frequently through the columns of the Standard. Hon. Nath. Ewing is lying very low, with little hope of his recovery.

Sheriff Messmore has been right ill for some weeks, but we believe is slowly recovering. His deputies have had almost double duty to perform during his sickness. Our county Auditors are now in session examining the accounts of county officers.

ADJOURNED COURT.

Our Court has been holding an adjourned session this week, and will continue next week. The business has been very tedious, but has been pushed steadily forward by the Court. Our lawyers have fallen into the habit of tediousness, and will need considerable stirring up before everything can be pushed.

LITTLE FISTICUFF.

Our town was enlivened last night by a lively fisticuff between Jim Nycum and Hon and Tom Dorren, wherein the latter, notwithstanding their very great reputation, came out second best. Nycum is a blacksmith, and is accustomed to striking sledge hammer blows. "Q."

A NEW method of killing horned cattle has been introduced in Europe, which, it is said, largely induces the possibility of inflicting unnecessary torture upon the animals. An iron mask, like a continuous blinker, is placed on the bullock's head, so arranged as to close the animal's vision, and to make a hole or socket in the middle of the mask corresponding to the spot in the centre of the forehead whereon a blow immediately causes insensibility. A hollow nail of peculiar form made to fit the socket, and having a large head, is then rapidly slipped in its place, and a single blow of very moderate strength drives it instantly home, and causes death too rapidly to allow any suffering.

THE prettiest new face, some says the prettiest woman in Washington, this year, is the wife of the new Arkansas Senator, Dorsey. She is a Spanish-looking beauty, with very long black lashes, dark eyes, and rather small, tidy figure.

GOLD AND SILVER.

Yield of Precious Metals.

California papers publish a statement by Wells, Fargo & Co.'s Express of the precious metals produced in 1873 in the gold and silver bearing districts west of the Missouri river, showing that the total amount is $72,257,693, an increase of more than $10,000,000 over 1872. Arizona, California, British Columbia, Oregon, Washington, Idaho and Montana decrease; Nevada, Utah and Colorado increase. The increase in Nevada alone is nearly $10,000,000, the total product of which about equals all the others. The reports for Arizona and the Western Mexican coast are incomplete, as the bullion produced there is transported by other means. The figures are as follows:

California	$18,025,722
Nevada	35,254,507
Oregon	1,376,389
Washington	209,395
Idaho	2,343,654
Montana	3,892,810
Utah	4,906,387
Arizona	47,778
Colorado	4,083,268
Mexico	868,798
British Columbia	1,250,035
Grand total	$72,258,693

AT A California fair several bottles of strained honey were exhibited, when a man put a bottle of castor-oil with the rest. Several old ladies sampled it, with the same result. The opinion of all who tried it was that the bee who made it was a fraud. One old lady said that even the bees had got to cheating nowadays.

TO RUPTURED PEOPLE.

To the general public the subject of rupture or bubonocele is a matter of very little interest. To one-sixth of the male portion of the community, however, it is a matter of grave and serious import, as that proportionate number are afflicted with that direful malady. Many of those afflicted are hardly aware of the fact that they are so; and there are others again who are apt to mistake rupture for some other disease, and again some other disease for rupture. In a displacement of the kind of which we are writing it is a serious fault to be in error. A delay of one day in procuring medical relief has often been at the expense of a life. Those who read this, will thank us for the knowledge of the fact, that there is a relief in every case, and a cure in many cases, in which a cure may be thought impossible. We invite all persons who are ruptured or who suspect themselves to be so, to call and procure the right kind of an appliance or ascertain if an appliance is necessary. Latest Advices Concerning Money and Stock Matters.

Improving—Money Plenty—Discount More Than Usual—Country Banks Deposit More Than Usual—Regular as Before the Panic.

OFFICE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
MONDAY EVENING, January 12, 1874.

It may be stated, in general terms, that monetary affairs have reached a condition, nearly or quite similar to what they were before the panic. That is, banks have a full line of deposits, and are entirely able to take care of their customers. A few are prepared to take outside paper, if entirely good. But there is no difficulty, on the part of those having bank accounts, in getting a sufficient amount of money, at the rates current before the panic. Exchange on Eastern cities, as well as those of the West, is readily obtainable. It should be stated, in this connection, however, that owing to the curtailment of manufactures, because of the panic, there is not so large a demand as formerly existed. Also, that the banks, and outside lenders, scrutinize paper more closely than before, and outsiders lend on promissory notes less freely than before the panic. Country banks are keeping up a good line of city deposits, and are securing a good supply of deposits at home, indicating that hoarded money is finding its way back to the banks.

On the street very little first class paper can be found. There is a fair supply of second and third class paper, some of which is being placed at 12 per cent. We judge that all the first class paper out can be readily negotiated at bank.

In New York gold opened very strong, but weakened, closing, however, at 112, which was a recovery at the close. The stock market did not exhibit any marked strength, probably not realizing the anticipations inspired by the bank reports of Saturday. Quietness and firmness were its chief characteristics.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
MONDAY, January 12, 1874.

The Crude market was reported weaker to-day, although prices, as compared with Saturday, were without quotable change, ranging from $1.15 to $1.30 per brl. at Parker, according to pipe line, equal to about 3¾@3¾c ⅌ gallon delivered here. There is no movement in refined. The market continues quiet, and notwithstanding the recent sharp appreciation in the value of the raw material. The product is worth but little if any, more now than it was; however, there is but little offering at prevailing rates. We continue to quote at 12 on cars here, whereas 13¾@13¾ is about all that can be obtained delivered in Philadelphia.

The market for oil barrels continues quiet and unchanged; city make, $1.90; countries, $1.85.

Condition of the Markets at Home and Abroad.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS—WEEKLY REVIEW.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
MONDAY, January 12, 1874.

APPLES—The arrivals continue meagre, but the supply is still fully equal to the demand, which is unusually light for this season of the year, while as regards rates, there has been no quotable change since the date of our last report, ranging from $2 to $4 ⅌ brl., according to quality.

APPLE BUTTER—Continues quiet and unchanged, 65 to 75c ⅌ gallon.

ASHES—The inquiry for almost everything in this line continues very light, and no important improvement can be expected until the window glass factories start up again.

ALE—Trade continues dull, but prices remain unchanged. We continue former quotations: X, $9 per brl. to the country, and $8 to the city: XX, $10: India Ale, $11. Half brls. in regular proportion.

BAGGING—Penn Mill two bushel bags, 35c; two and one-half bushel, 42: three bushel, 50.

BEANS—There has been rather more inquiry during the past week, one house having disposed of over 100 barrels to the trade, but prices remain as last quoted $2@2.25 ⅌ bushel. The supply in this market is unusually large, and prices are lower than they have been for several years.

BEESWAX—Continues very dull, and the supply is unusually large and accumulating; may be quoted nominally at 25@30.

BUCKWHEAT FLOUR—There is but little inquiry, and prices are weak and lower, 3¾@4c per ℔.

BROOM CORN—The arrivals for some time past have been very light, but the supply is still equal to the demand, which is restricted entirely to supplying immediate wants, and rates remain as last quoted. 5¾@6¾ for red; 7@8 for green, and 9@10 for hurl.

BROOMS—Following are the factory prices: No. 2, $2 per dozen No. 3, $2.50. No. 4, $3. No. 5, $3.25. No. 6, $3.50. Carpet Brooms, $4. Toy Brooms and Whisps, $1.50@2. In a jobbing way, from store, 25 to 37½c per dozen additional.

BUTTER—There is perhaps rather more inquiry for the better grades, and the supply of this character is comparatively light, owing no doubt to the bad condition of the country roads; common and medium butter, however, is in good supply and dull. Quotable at 10@15 for common to fair; 18@25 for medium to good, and 28@32 for prime to choice—some dealers quote choice up 33@35, but we have reason to believe that there are but few sales being made above our quotations.

COPPER—Following are the card rates cash as reported by Park & Co.: Braziers' Copper, 13 ℔. sheets and upward, 35c. Braziers' Copper, 10, 11 and 12 ℔. sheets, 38c. Braziers' Copper, 9 ℔. and less, 41c Circles: under 84 in. diameter, 38c. Circles, 84 in diameter and over, 41c. Segment and Pattern Sheets, 38c: Sheathing Copper, 14 in. by 48 in., 33c. Bolt Copper, 35c. Locomotive Fire Box Plates, 35c.

CEMENT AND LIME—Rosendale cement, $4.00@4.50 ⅌ barrel Louisville, $2.50; Cumberland, $2.50. Lime—Cleveland white, Toledo and Fremont, $2 ⅌ barrel; Calcined Plaster—best eastern—$4.50; Michigan, $3.50@3.75.

COTTON, SHEETING and YARNS.—Penn Mill A. No. 1 4-4 Sheeting, 11¾c. Nonatook, 11c: Pittsburgh Family, 10¾c. Juniata, B. fine, 10c; White Carpet Chain fine, 33c Colored, 40c. Cotton Batting, 16: Cotton Twine, 33.

CRACKERS—Water, 7. N. Y. Water, 7. Oysters, 6¾@7. Soda, 7. Soda Extra, 9¾. Butter, 7. Boston Extra, 9¾. Scotch Biscuit, 11¾. Ginger Snaps, 11. Hard Times, 10. Graham, 7.

CORDAGE & ROPE—Manilla rope, ¾ inch in diameter and upwards, 17¾ cents, ¾, 18c; ¾, and 5-16, 18¾c tarred rope and lath yarn, 17c and hay and leather twine, 18¾. Sisal rope—¾ and 5-16 in. diameter 16¾c. ¾, 16; ¾ in. and upwards, 15¾; hay and spoke twine, 16. Oil well drilling, cables—hawser laid, 17¾c do. bolt rope and yarn, 19c Sand pump rope, 17¾.

CRANBERRIES—There is a continued steady demand, and we can report regular sales at $10@13 ⅌ brl., according to quality.

CHEESE—There is a continued good demand for prime Ohio Factory, but low grade cheese continues dull; we continue to quote the former at 14¾@15. Fancy brands such as "Young America" and "Nutmeg," are still quoted at 17 for latter, and 18 for former.

CARBON OIL—Is considerably firmer and prices are higher in sympathy with the raw material; quoted at 12c by the carload, and 1@2c additional for smaller lots. Elaine, 25c.

CANNED GOODS—The inquiry continues meagre, being restricted mainly to supplying immediate wants, but prices are sustained. We continue to quote in a jobbing way at $3.25@3.50 ⅌ dozen for 3 ℔ Peaches; $2.25@2.50 for 2 ℔s; $2.25@2.35 for Tomatoes; $3 for Winslow's Corn, and $2.65@2.75 for other brands.

COKE—Trade continues quiet, but an improvement in the demand soon is expected. We continue to quote Connellsville at $3.25 per ton, free on cars in Pittsburgh.

DRESSED HOGS—6@6¾c per ℔.

DRIED FRUIT—The demand appears to be increasing and with a very limited supply, the market is firmer, although prices are unchanged. Peaches, 10@12c for halves; 18@20 for peeled; Apples, 6@8. Blackberries, 14@15.

EGGS—The receipts have slacked off somewhat within the past week, but the supply, particularly of pickled, is in excess of the demand, and prices are lower. We now quote fresh at 25@28, and pickled at 18@22. Some dealers report that they are unable to dispose of pickled at any price—we doubt whether there ever was such a supply of this kind in this market before.

FIRE BRICK—Trade is improving and prices are firmer but unchanged. Woodland, $50; Apollo, $30; Bolivar, $30; West Virginia, $16.

FLOUR—The market continues firm, and during the past week we have advanced our quotations 25c per brl; spring wheat flours, $7.25@7.75, the latter figure for choice Minnesotas; red winters, $8@8.50, and white wheat, $9@10. The receipts continue liberal, and dealers generally are pretty well stocked with the different grades, but they all regard flour as good property at present rates, hence there is no disposition to force the market or to make concessions in order to effect sales. Rye Flour, $5.25@5.50.

GRAIN—The receipts of Wheat continue very meagre, and nearly all that is coming in is consigned to the mills—there is no stock in the hands of dealers, and with a steady milling demand, prices are firm but unchanged: $1.58@1.60 for red winter; $1.63@1.65 for amber, and $1.68@1.70 for white. The Oat market is firmer, in consequence of decreased arrivals and offerings, and prices have advanced during the past week 1@2c ⅌ bushel: we now quote at 53@55; some dealers claim that the margin, taking present rates as a basis, is very small. The supply of Ear Corn continue very light, scarcely equal to the demand, and prices in consequence are firm and well sustained, 70@72, however, it is proper to state that the inquiry is mostly of a jobbing character, and we opine that it would be difficult to place a round lot at quotations. Shelled Corn is also in light supply, but there is not as much inquiry for it as there is for ear; quotations may be given at 73@75—we did hear of a sale of prime old at 78, but this may be regarded as an outside price. There is rather more inquiry for Rye and with a very limited supply prices are higher; sales at 95—it is said it cannot be laid down here from the west under $1.05. There is but little doing in Barley; brewers are still getting in considerable, but they are buying it in the west; there was scarcely any grown in this section of the country last year.

GAME—Venison continues very dull, and the market is largely overstocked; quotable at 10@12 cents ⅌ ℔ for Saddles. Rabbits, $1.50@1.75 ⅌ doz. Squirrels, $1@1.50. Pheasants and Prairie Chickens, $3.50@4 ⅌ dozen Quail, $1.50. It is hoped that the cold weather of the past few days will increase the demand.

GROCERIES—Coffee—The market for all descriptions is firm at an advance in the last few days of fully ¾c ⅌ ℔, and the prevailing opinion is that higher values will rule before many days go round. Cargoes have been sold within the last few days on the seaboard at 27c gold, and 28¾ and 29¾ gold are the ruling figures for choice invoices. Our roasters have advanced to-day to 35c, and it is said that there is no profit in roasted Coffee at that. Sugar—Firmer, and an advance looked for momentarily in refined goods, owing to the late sharp advance in raws, which added another ¾ to its value on Saturday. Molasses—New Orleans scarce and high. The purchases for this market at this date aggregate about two thousand barrels; last year it was at least ten thousand at same date. We look for high figures next summer. Syrups strong and advancing. Rice—Firm, and the higher grades of Carolina hard to buy.

HAY—The arrivals of baled have slacked off somewhat within the past few days, but the supply is still in excess of the demand, and prices are barely sustained; may be quoted at $18@23 ⅌ ton, according to quality.

HOMINY—The market is firmer, but prices remain as last quoted: $4.75@5.25 ⅌ brl.

ONIONS—The arrivals continue comparatively light, and with an average demand and a limited supply, the market may be quoted firm at the recent sharp advance, sales of red at $5 ⅌ brl., and choice silver skins at $7.

PEAS—$1.65@1.75 ⅌ bushel.

POULTRY—The market has been very dull during the past week, but now as the weather has turned cold, an improved demand is not improbable. Fresh receipts of dressed Chickens 10@12 Ducks, 12@14; Turkeys, 15@16. Live chickens, 40@50 ⅌ pair. Live Turkeys, 75@1.00 each.

POTATOES—There is a good jobbing demand and the market is quoted firm, especially for good stock, but prices remain unchanged. We continue to quote prime Peach Blows at $1.20@1.25 ⅌ bushel. The fact that they are rotting causes people to take hold sparingly, both dealers and consumers buying only to supply immediate wants.

TALLOW—Quoted at 6¾@7.

WHISKY—Highwines, $1@1.02 ⅌ gallon.

WHITE LEAD—Continues dull, but prices are unchanged; we continue to quote strictly pure, in 100 keg lots, at 11¾ cents and 12 cents in a jobbing way. In tin packages, one half to one cent ⅌ ℔ additional.

WOODEN WARE—Two hoop Pails, $2.40 three hoop do, $2.65. No. 1 three hoop Tubs $10.50. No. 2, two-hoop Tubs, $9.00. No. 3, two hoop tubs, $8.50. Plain Wash boards, per dozen $2.50. Crimp, $2.75, I X L, $2.50.

WOOL—The market continues firm with considerable inquiry and we learn on pretty good authority that nearly all the desirable wool in this section of the country has been picked up; dealers here have been buying all the wool they could get hold of within the past few weeks and at full prices, say 45 to 50 cts per pound, according to quality: which is an advance of three to five cents per pound, within the past sixty days. We learn that representatives of eastern firms have been and still are hovering through Eastern Ohio and Western Pennsylvania soliciting consignments and buying whenever they can do so to any advantage, but as we have already stated, there is now but very little wool remaining in first hands, except "cullings," which don't seem to be wanted at any price. The eastern markets continue firm with an advancing tendency, and stocks are generally reported light.

WINDOW GLASS—There is nothing particularly new or important to record; the situation remains substantially as last noted. Orders continue scarce, because both jobbers and consumers are well aware that there is no stock in this market, and as there is no prospect of the factories starting up soon, they are buying elsewhere. This, as a matter of course, is not very encouraging to our manufacturers, forcing their customers to seek supplies elsewhere, but then they contend that it is better to have their works idle than run them at a loss, and it is simply impossible to compete with eastern manufacturers and pay last years rates for labor. Workmen, however, are still holding out, refusing to go to work at the proposed reduction in wages, while makers are very emphatic in declaring that they will not start up this year, unless the blowers and others accede to the rates proposed, which it is claimed are 10 to 15 ⅌ cent higher than those prevailing in the east at the present time.

GENERAL FEATURES OF THE MARKET.

Calculating the 27 cars of western cattle at 20 head to the car, and we have 540; add to these the 233 driven in; and we have in all 773 head as the total supply on sale against 1,110 head last Monday, showing a decrease of 337 head. As might be expected, with this large falling off in the supply to-day, which was, if we mistake not, the lightest, with a single exception, for several months, the market was an active one. The best evidence of this was that the pens were almost cleared by half-past ten o'clock, whereas last Monday there was a good many on sale later in the day. The common and medium brought an advance of from ¾ to ¾, and even at the advance, the supply was hardly equal to the demand. Prime cattle also sold readily, all of this character were picked up early in the day, but dealers who had this kind reported that they let their regular customers have them at last week's rates. One dealer informed our reporter that he had cattle for which he was offered 7¾, yet he sold them to one of his regular customers at 7c; dealers can't afford to take advantage of their regular buyers on every little spurt, for the reason that very often these same buyers pay these same drovers more for cattle than they could obtain for them from other dealers—it seems to be a mutual arrangement, and there is no doubt but what it works well as long as it is adhered to in good faith. Quotations may be given as follows:

Extra butcher steers	7.00@7.12
Prime butcher steers	6.50@6.75
Second quality	6.00@6.25
Third quality	5.50@5.75
Common to fair	4.50@5.00
Old cows, bulls, etc, etc.	3.50@3.50
Scalawags	2.00@2.50

There were twelve cars on sale from Chicago, the largest number we have had from that point for several months, and it is expected, in view of the fact that the supply of butcher cattle in this section is about, to use a common phrase, 'played out,' that our dealers will have to depend on Chicago for stock from now until June. The arrivals per Cleveland and Pittsburgh R. R. were comparatively light, which is said to be owing to the fact that a good deal of stock that generally come to this market is now being shipped to Baltimore over the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad.

SHEEP.

The supply on sale to day footed up 584 head, varying but little from that of last Monday and with a fair demand, especially for the better grades, the market was moderately active, without, however, any quotable change in prices. Prime fat sheep may be quoted at 6@6¾c ⅌ ℔, medium to good at 5@5¾, common 4@4¾. Dealers claim that there is very little money in handling sheep at present rates, that they are too high in the country: if this is so, it is their privilege to let them alone—there is no fault to find in producers for getting all they possibly can—dealers do the same thing here with the butchers—it's a poor rule that won't work both ways. Lambs in light supply, and quotable from $3@$4¾ ⅌ head, according to quality. The stock on sale to day was reported as follows:

Peter Sheitmantle	124	Henry Nagle	29
M Humes	67	A. Stakely	40
J. W. Unger	84	Adam Eckert	250
Total.			584

HOGS.

Were in very light supply to day, and, with a very fair demand, the market was firm and prices higher; sales were made, in a retail way, at 5¾@6¾ gross. Most of the pork butchers are now getting their hogs in East Liberty, where they have a better selection, and, as a general thing, can buy at lower rates.

RIVER NEWS.

State of the Rivers, Movements of Steamboats, &c.

The weather continues cloudy and cold, with wind from the west. The stage of water last evening about 10 feet and falling. Business was very quiet at the landing, but it will doubtless be better to day.

There have been no arrivals since our last. The Juniata was due last night, having passed Wheeling yesterday forenoon, and will no doubt be found in port this morning. As will be seen by card, she will return again on Wednesday afternoon.

There are quite a number of towboats en route from Cincinnati, some of which should reach here within the next day or two.

The R W. Skillinger, Captain J. T. Russell, is announced for Cincinnati, leaving this afternoon without fail, and passengers and shippers should bear this in mind. The Skillinger will ply regularly hereafter between Cincinnati and Pittsburgh in command of Captain Russell, a veteran steamboatman on this end of the Ohio river.

The Messenger, Capt. M. A Cox, is announced for St. Louis and all intermediate ports forthwith. She will receipt through to Nashville, Memphis and New Orleans.

The Ironsides is announced for New Orleans.

—A late Vicksburg paper says: The Great Republic had, among other passenger items, night before last, one list of twelve preachers, a prestigator and a man who had never before seen a steamboat. This latter genius came from the mountains of East Tennessee, and took passage on the floating palace at Memphis. When he first entered the superb cabin he looked around in utter bewilderment for a while, and then turning to the clerk, asked, where's the boat I'm gwine on? The clerk answered, I suppose this is the boat. Looking up into the clerk's face with an air of childlike innocence and simplicity, the stranger inquired. Is this here a steamboat? and being answered in the affirmative by the astonished clerk, said, Well, I never seed one before. I thought this was a Big Hotel. Mr. Smith's gin house near the head of Honey Island caught fire last Wednesday evening, and before the flames could be extinguished the entire structure, together with eighty bales of cotton, was burned to ashes.

—The St. Louis Democrat says: The Mississippi Valley Transportation Company, or barge line, doing business between St. Louis and New Orleans is like the St. Louis and St. Paul Steamboat Line in one respect—its "way business" is very important. This is increasing every year. As already intimated in the Democrat, it is not in doubt that the barge company finds the carrying of cotton, oil, cake and seed from Memphis a profitable movement. Vicksburg and "the bends" also will soon look upon cotton barges with a favorable eye, and as a familiar object.

—A Cincinnati dispatch under date of Monday says: Clear; thermometer 22. River 47 feet 10 inches and stationary. The boats are unable to get under the railroad bridge. Coal selling at 10 cents afloat. Arrived—Thomas Sherlock from New Orleans. Departed—Diamond and Hornet No. 2 for Pittsburgh.

—The Memphis Avalanche says: The Fannie Tatum, Katie Kountz, Ashland, May, Lowrey and R. W. Dugan were all above Little Rock in the Arkansas. The Utah has gone out and designed to extend her trip to New Orleans. The Cherokee and John Howard are on their way up Arkansas from New Orleans.

—The towboat Wild Duck left St. Louis on Sunday on her return to this port, with a tow of 1,300 tons of iron ore.

HOME NEWS.

Young Men's Mercantile Library Association, Sewickley, Pa.

The fifth lecture of the season will be given this evening in Mozart Hall. Judge J. W. F. White will speak his piece, subject: Man. The reputation of the Judge abroad and at home as a thinker and speaker, is sufficient to crowd the Hall.

Sixth Ward School Board.

The school board of the Forbes district, Sixth ward, met last night and organized for the ensuing year by electing Enoch Normicutt, Esq., President and Mr. Ernest W. Morrow, Secretary. Mr. Wm. H. Everson was re-elected Treasurer, with the arrangement that the board shall have six per cent. on the balances and bonds in ten thousand dollars. The amount appropriated under the rules of the Central Board of Education $393 46 for the payment of night school teachers was appropriated, by allowing the Principal $125 and the lady teachers a pro rata amount of the balance.

The Nation's Bank for Savings.

This young bank of savings announces a dividend of four per cent. out of the earnings of the past six months. This six months covers the period of the prolonged financial embarrassment, and it is very creditable under the circumstances, that the bank enrolls itself with the older corporations as a dividend paying institution. We were about to say we were surprised at so rich a showing, but when we reflect that Arthur Hobson, James McBrier and C. W. Benny, are, in the order named, President, Vice President and Treasurer, it would be more surprising if the bank were not entirely successful, and in such hands it is safe to predict a continuous development of solid prosperity and healthy growth.

Enterprise Insurance Company.

Our columns show the annual statement of this company, which, by its quiet, cautious and prudential system of business, has gained an unsurpassed reputation for reliability and judicious distribution of risks. Extreme caution, as exercised by this company in all its affairs, is a firm guarantee that its patrons can never be the losers, from any lack of discretion or judgment on the part of those who control its operations. Its promptness in adjusting all losses, as soon as known, commends it to those who have suffered from the vexatious delays of companies who have no care for home reputation. Always at his post, is to be found the courteous, affable, energetic and efficient Secretary, Mr. J. J. Albietz, whose constant concern is for the welfare and success of this institution.

Oakland Railway—Questions to be Answered.

EDITORS GAZETTE: Can you give a reason why the new proprietors of the Oakland and East Liberty Passenger Railway do not run their cars further than Oakland? They have stopped vehicles, other than their own cars, from using Fifth avenue from Oakland to the city, and yet furnish no accommodation to those residing at Bellefield, and beyond. It is said that the company purposely refuses to do this, in order to compel the people to petition Councils to give them the right of way through Hiland avenue. An indignation meeting is taked of. Will you answer the public two questions? 1. Have the Oakland Railway Company the right to monopolize Fith avenue; and 2. Cannot their charter be broken if, for the reason assigned they refuse to run their cars beyond Oakland.

PRESIDENT.

The Pennsylvania Insurance Company.

This company, as will be seen, declares a dividend of $3 per share out of the profits of the last six months. The Pennsylvania for several years transacted its business upon a partially paid up capital; it has had many losses, some of them severe, but has, with singular promptitude and equity adjusted and paid them all. No company, large or small, new or old, has a more honorable record, and under the present administration it has constantly gathered strength and grown in popular favor. Mr. C. Yeager, since his accession to the Presidency has given much of his time to an oversight of its interests. Those who know him will agree with us that everything done by him is well and thoroughly done. In Mr. Thomas D. Keller, the experienced and energetic Secretary, the company has a most efficient officer, in whose hands the affairs and interests of stockholders and patrons are equally and wisely cared for. We rejoice in the multiplying evidences that the "Pennsylvania" is at once a safe and a thriving insurance company.

BURNELL, THE EVANGELIST.

His Movements in this City Yesterday.

Yesterday Mr. Burnell the evangelist, was called upon by Mrs. Felix Brunot, and with that lady paid a visit to the Temporary Home for Destitute Woman on Chatham street. After that he returned to the room of the Young Men's Christian Association, where he took part in the noon-day prayer meeting. After this he visited several of our manufactories, including Hubbell, Lippincott, Bakewell & Co's. where the nooning hour was extended, and the workmen listened to the speaker with wrapt attention. Last evening Mr. Burnell spoke at the Union Sabbath School Meeting in the Third U. P. Church on the Diamond. He will leave to-day for Little Washington and will return here to-morrow, after which he goes to Butler.

DEATH FROM HEMORRHAGE.

A Laborer Expires While Dressing Himself.

Coroner McCallin yesterday held an inquest on the body of Cornelius McCarthy a native of Ireland, forty years of age and a single man. Deceased had been employed in a quarry in the East End, and boarded in the rear of No. 1080, Penn avenue. He got up as usual, yesterday morning, about six o'clock, and had partially dressed himself, when he took to bleeding of the lungs. His room mate carried him to his bed, and he secured help, but the man died before a physician reached him. The jury rendered a verdict of death from hemorrhage of the lungs. Deceased has $320 in the Dollar Savings Bank. The Coroner has charge of his effects.

SELECT COUNCIL.

A. H. GROSS........................President.
E. S. MORROW........................Clerk.

This branch was called to order at fifteen minutes past two o'clock. Present: Messrs. Adams, Ahl, Ahlborn, Aiken, Anderson, Atkinson, Atterbury, Bissell, Braun, Breed, R. B. Brown, G. A. Brown, Burgwin, Chalmers, Clark, Darlington, Dannells, Dietrich, Dorrington, Doyle, Eitemiller, Elder, Fetterman, Foster, Fox, Froelich, Galvin, Goldthorpe, Haines, Harrison, Hays, Herron, Holliday, Howard, House, Hunter, Jeremy, Kernan Keebler, Kestner, Kirk, Laufman, Liddell, Lloyd, Littell, Marshall, Minnick, Mitchell, Meyer, Murray, McCarthy, McClurg, McCune, McFarlane, McKee, McMahon, Negley, Och, O'Neill, Phillips, Rafferty, Rayburn, Reed, Scheck, Scully, Shipton, Smith, Watson, Zern, and President Gross.

SWORN IN.

After roll call Mr. KESTNER, member from the Twenty-eighth ward, who was absent at the meeting for organization, was called up, and had the oath of office administered to him by President Gross.

The minutes of the proceeding meeting for organization were read and adopted.

Mr. AIKEN offered an additional rule, providing that no ordinance should be considered until it had been referred to a Committee, returned therefrom and printed for the use of the members.

Some discussion ensued upon the resolution, which was finally wound up by a reference of the paper to the Presidents of Councils for their opinions, and report to Council.

THE NEW CITY CHARTER.

Mr. MCCARTHY offered a resolution directing the City Clerk to procure a certified copy of the new City Charter and have five hundred copies printed in pamphlet form.

Mr. KIRK moved to amend by requiring also the Charter be printed in the official papers but this was voted down and the original resolution adopted.

Mr. BURGWIN moved to suspend the rules for the purpose of meeting in Joint Session to hear the announcement of Committees for the year. Carried.

WITHDRAWALS.

When Councils reassembled.

Mr. PHILLIPS said, "Before you proceed with business I would ask leave to withdraw my name from the Finance Committee and the Committee on City Property. I really will not have the time to attend to the matter."

Mr. DAVID REED made a similar request as to his appointment on the Committee on Appeals from City Assessments.

The Chair—"Well, gentlemen, if this thing goes on, we might as well break up all the committees.

Mr. SMITH—"I move that Col. Phillips request be not granted, as we can't spare him."

Mr. PHILLIPS—"Well, Mr. President, I must be released of one or the other. If the Finance Committee meets at night while they are making appropriations, I might consent to serve on that, but I can't take in the two commitees."

On motion, Mr. Philips was then released from the chairmanship of the Committee on City Property.

Mr. REED then insisted that he be relieved from the Committee on Appeals for city assessments, because he would not have time to attend to the matter and because his business would interfere with his serving on that committee.

Mr. Reed's request was accordingly granted.

The Councils then suspended the rules to consider the report of the viewer's on the sewer on Diamond and Fourth streets.

Mr. HUNTER offered a remonstrance against the report of the viewers.

The matter was discussed at some length, and the report finally adopted.

Mr. RAFFERTY, petition for straightening of Chatham street. Referred to Street Committee, with power to act.

"MECHANICAL" AND "CIVIL."

Mr. CHALMERS offered the following:

WHEREAS, when the new City Charter was passed by City Councils, article 5th, section 5th, Department of Public Works, was so amended as to read "mechanical", instead of "civil" engineer, and as it is asserted that this was not changed by the Legislature, but after it left there, therefore,

Resolved, That our Representatives at Harrisburg be and are hereby requested to use their endeavors to have the 5th section of article 5th, Department of Public Works, repealed.

Mr. FETTERMAN moved to amend by striking out both words "civil" or "mechanical" and leaving the section just call for an Engineer without specifying the class.

After some discussion

Mr. BURGWIN moved to postpone the matter until the last meeting in January, by which time it was expected, a certified copy of the new charter would be received. Adopted.

THE RECORD.

Mr. CHALMERS offered a resolution, directing the City Controller to advertise for proposals for printing one hundred and fifty copies of the Municipal Record. Adopted.

Mr. LLOYD presented a paper from Mr. Joseph Frick, as follows:

"This preceeding paper is a list of some men who, at present, are without employment, and in want of the necessaries of life. This list is taken of a few wards, and we present it to the Common Council as a sample from the misery and wants in our city.

"Is the Council willing to prevent this misery. Have the workingmen a right to look to them?

"President of the Workingmens' Society,
"JOSEPH FRICK."

The paper was very numerously signed.—the manuscript extending out several yards.

It was moved to refer to the Finance Committee.

Mr. LLOYD thought the paper should be received with respect, if Councils could not grant relief.

Mr LAUFMAN moved the appointment of a special committee to consider means of relief, and, if necessary, call a meeting. Adopted, and Messrs Laufman and McCarthy named for special committe.

Mr. WATSON, ordinances granting Alex. McClure and Geo. McCoy right to rear frame buildings. Adopted.

WATER RENTS.

Mr. KIRK offered a resolution directing the Water Committee to revise the schedule of water rents so that the amount received from this source be made sufficient to pay the interest on water bonds and the expenses of keeping the water works in order.

Mr. KIRK said the water rents were the same as they were about eight years ago. He thought the amount could be doubled nearly one half without putting any additional expense on families, but the chief addition would come from foundries, manufactories, &c.

Several members contended that it would quadruple water rents.

Mr. LLOYD said if there was much more put on rolling mills and manufactures, they would not take the water at all. Already a number of them had put in pumps of their own and were getting the water for themselves from the river, and if there was any more tax put on, the city would likely lose all the revenue from this source. He, however, thought there might be reform in one way. There had been miles of pipe laid from which only a few people took the water. Other tenants in the vicinity who had the advantage of the water in case of fire did not otherwise use the water, and so paid nothing. He thought every tenant within a thousand feet of a fire-plug, whether such tenant used the water or not, be compelled to pay at least one-half of the rate.

Mr. DARLINGTON offered a substitute instructing the Water Committee to consider where the water rents might be increased with advantage to the city, and also to consider the propriety of taxing the property per foot front, were the pipes were laid.

The substitute, after some discussion, was adopted.

THE CITY ENGINEER.

Mr. KIRK offered the following:

Resolved, That a Committee of two from Select Council and three from Common be appointed to the accounts of the City Engineer and examine the public and private pay rolls, kept by that officer and report whether any items have been charged twice by him and also the amount which they actually find to be due from him and street improvements of the city. Said Committee also to examine into the truth of the charges heretofore made against him, and to enable said Committee to fully investigate the same the Mayor be instructed to issue the necessary summons for persons and papers.

The resolution was objected to because it gave rise to debate, and it went over under the rules.

Mr. MITCHELL, petition for water pipe on Jackson street, Twelfth ward. Referred.

Mr. ATKINSON, ordinance providing for numbering houses on South Side. Laid over.

Mr. GOLDTHORPE offered a petition for board walk on Neville street. Referred.

Mr. FETTERMAN, petition for location of and opening of a street from Garden street to Grand avenue. Referred. Also a petition for opening and extending of Grand avenue. Referred.

The Chairman at this juncture announced, that a certified copy of the New Charter had been laid on his table.

The section in reference to the Water Works was read, from which it appeared that the word "civil" had been inserted in place of "mechanical."

The whole matter however was postponed in accordance with the resolution until the charter was printed and Councils adjourned.

COMMON COUNCIL.

W. B. NEGLEY........................President.

Mr. DUFF said that a number of members were in favor of adjourning and attending Mr. Moore's funeral in a body, but as the hour for the funeral was past, and it would take at least an hour to reach the late residence of deceased, an adjournment would be of no benefit.

Mr. FULTON, ordinance amending an ordinance, providing for the safe keeping of the funds of the city, and increasing the amount of bonds required from city depositories from $100,000 to $300,000. The ordinance was passed finally.

Also, resolution that a committee of five be appointed to examine and report on the claim of the Managers of the Young Mens' Home, on Duquesne Way, against the city for a portion of the expense of maintaining destitute persons taken their by police. Adopted, and Messrs. Duff, Ihmsen and Milligan appointed on behalf of Common Council.

GRIER COMING BACK.

The Matter Arranged Yesterday—He is Expected Here To-morrow—Not far from the City.

At last some light is promised in clearing up the affairs of the Nation Trust Company, and the mystery which surrounds the disappearance of its funds, as well as the half million or more of Pittsburgh water and Thirty-third street bonds, in all probability, will be unraveled. It will be remembered that some time ago, in the columns of the GAZETTE, was published the substance of a statement made by Grier, in which he promised to come back, and also to restore to the stockholders some $300,000 if guaranteed freedom from prosecution. The stockholders' action thereon was given, as favorable to such a proposition, provided, of course, that the return of the securities was first assured. At that time, Messrs. McKay, Alexander Pitcairn and J. H. McKelvy, were appointed a committee from the trustees to consider the matter. The matter has been thoroughly discussed by the parties interested and an understanding arrived at. Our readers understand, that there is now pending before Alderman McMasters, a charge of conspiracy against Grier in conjunction with Messrs. Ross, Blair, Dickson and Ardary.

A CONSULTATION.

On yesterday afternoon a consultation was held in regard to the proposed return of the missing Cashier. The consultation was held in Alderman McMaster's office. The prosecution was represented by Colonel Bayne, prosecuting attorney of the county, John Barton, Esq., counsel for Grier, Grier's two brothers, and on behalf of the bank, Messers. J. H. McKelvey and Alex. Pitcairn were also present. The matter of withdrawing the reward was discussed, as Grier agreed to return with a mutual friend, if there was no price put upon him. After some discussion, it was agreed that the reward should be withdrawn, and that Alderman McMasters as a mutual friend, should proceed to meet Grier, that Grier should deliver himself in to the Alderman's hands, that the 'Squire should receive no recommendation, and that he should bring Grier with him to this city. Surety was then entered for Grier's appearance. The consultation was a private one, and reporters were excluded. The reporter of the GAZETTE interviewed the Alderman in regard to the time

WHEN GRIER IS TO BE BROUGHT BACK.

Rep.—Is Grier to refund the $300,000 in securities as hinted at some time ago?

Ald. McMasters—I cannot answer that—I do not know.

Rep.—Is the prosecution against Grier to be withdrawn as a part of the agreement for return?

Ald.—I do not understand it so.

Rep.—Where is Grier?

Ald.—Not far from here.

Rep.—When do you propose to bring him here?

Ald.—Well, I think about Wednesday. I have not very far to go after him.

Rep.—Why were you chosen to go after him?

Ald.—Because it was agreed upon. I am a friend to all parties, and I am to get no fee or reward for bringing him here.

Rep.—Is there bail entered for his appearance?

Ald.—We are assured that he will come.

Rep.—Has he made any definite statement?

Ald.—(laughing) Well, you can best judge for yourself.

Rep.—Are you sure you will bring him?

Ald.—Yes sir, I am sure; and you need not be afraid to say so.

"NOT A LAW."

The New City Charter as Viewed by the Governor—He Signed It but It Will do no Good.

The word of caution in reference to the new City Charter, given in yesterday's GAZETTE, stimulated inquiries in that direction and developed the fact that the opinions of several legal gentlemen referred to yesterday were shared in by many even of the warmest advocates of the charter. The matter especially was discussed among members of Council, and one of them who has been somewhat conspicuous in securing "a certified copy," expressed himself in such a manner as to lead his hearers to believe he had formed a pretty decided opinion upon the question. A representative of the GAZETTE availed himself of an opportunity to learn the sentiments of the gentleman, and found that he was free to express himself in doubt as to the constitutionality of the law.

"Why, what makes you so dubious about it?" queried the reporter.

"A very good reason," was the reply. "I was told so from pretty high authority—from headquarters."

"Headquarters—where's that?"

"From Governor Hartranft himself. I was in conversation with him about it, and he asked me if the people really now had any remembrance of what the Charter contained. I told him I didn't know about that but they seemed to want it, on trial any how. He said he didn't know that they were very anxious for it, but he had been pressed by certain parties to sign it, and at last had consented."

"Why, I thought Governor Hartranft was more careful than that."

"Hold on a minute; I think he was very careful after all. He told me he wasn't fully satisfied about the business, and had referred the Charter to the Attorney General, who, after examination, said it would do no harm to sign it that day, the seventh of January, because the new Constitution was proclaimed that day, and the Charter would thus be of no particular account."

"Why, that's what I've heard before—that it was inoperative because it was signed the same day the new Constitution was proclaimed, and must come under its provisions."

"That's what the Attorney General said—it came under the new order of things, and it didn't make much difference whether it was signed or not."

"Well, then, I suppose there's no special necessity for getting wildly enthusiastic even over 'a certified copy' just yet?"

"Not much, as yet," remarked the City Father, as he moved away. "I don't give this, mind you, as my opinion, for I'm not lawyer enough to know anything about it. That's just what was told me, though!"

THE TEMPERANCE ALLIANCE.

A Woman Suffrage Plank in the Temperance Platform Rejected.

Yesterday morning the Temperance Alliance held a regular meeting in their headquarters, at which a new Constitution was reported. The new instrument contained no features differing materially from the one always in force, save in the Second Article. In this an endorsement of Woman Suffrage was interjected, and the result was a lively discussion, resulting in the defeat of the interpolation. The speakers generally held that Woman Suffrage was a side issue, that should not be tacked on to the temperance cause, although as a distinct matter, the ballot for woman was generally endorsed.

The new Constitution, with this exception, was approved and the Alliance thus equipped for a new campaign. The suffrage question will be discussed at the next meeting.

The American Manufacturer

Of last week contains a very valuable English letter giving reports of the Iron, Steel and Metal markets that are some days later than the reports in the English papers. The foreign correspondence of this valuable journal is very condensed and readable, and with the very full reports of the Iron and Heavy Hardware markets of this country must make its columns almost indispensable to the trade. We are glad to see that Pittsburgh can at least boast of possessing the leading Iron and Metal trade journal of this country.

PROFESSOR D. MAYER.

Pittsburgh's Favorite Dancing Master Explains—Where He has Been and What He Proposes to Do—Why He Left.

Prof. D. Mayer, the dancing master who so mysteriously disappeared from this city some months ago, and whose sudden taking off was first made known through the GAZETTE, has been heard from. He is in Boston, Mass., and has written a letter from there explaining his absence, and giving reasons therefor. The epistle, which is quite lengthy, is dated January 9th, and, after reviewing the four years spent by him in this city, he says: "Last summer a great misfortune befell my parents in Europe, and required my financial assistance. This I can prove by the letters which I have in my possession. I done all that was in my power, and had to dispose of some of my personal effects, and run in debt beside. But I did not mind it much, for I, and almost everybody else, thought that the following season would be an overwhelming success for me, as my school had been on the increase every season.

Alas! Man proposes and God disposes. I was doomed to utter disappointment, and in place of my usual large classes I did not have enough to pay expenses. At the end of October I only had about seventeen scholars, where I usually have over sixty by that time with all the tuition money paid in advance. This season I did not have all the money in advance. I tried to collect, but only some paid me; the majority did not pay me. Had they done so, I would have been in Pittsburgh to this day. All they had to do was to write a check for the paltry amount. But they are a class of people who expect the poor man to live without money, whilst they roll in luxuries, to which they think only themselves are entitled to. I had a debt of $1,200 to pay during the month of November, and I saw no way of getting any money to pay even part of it. I became discourage, and lost spirit. My pride did not permit me to reveal my position to anybody, so I went about day after day with my trouble resting heavy on my mind. Then, as misfortune never travels alone, an event occurred about that time, which is known only to a very few, that nearly wrecked my life. I took sick, and there are a number of people in Pittsburgh who will remember that I complained seriously about my head, and yet I attended to my duties, although a more fit subject for the grave than to stand with a smiling face and teach the fascinating art of dancing. This was my position when I left Pittsburgh.

Why my school was not a success I cannot account for. I am not aware that I had done anything to forfeit the patronage usually extended to me.

I returned from Europe after performing a duty I had toward my parents and am now trying to get some occupation at my former business. I have made up my mind, as soon as I get a situation, to save all I can and meet all my obligations in Pittsburgh. If the parties who are principally interested in this are satisfied, it will give me much pleasure to know it. But if they are inclined for revenge, I will present myself at Pittsburgh at any time to their satisfaction. I will remain in Boston till Saturday, the 17th inst., and if I don't find employment I shall go West, perhaps via Pittsburgh.

PROF. D. MAYER.

AMUSEMENTS.

PITTSBURGH OPERA HOUSE.—Last evening Miss Clara Morris appeared as Gabrielle Le Brun in the new drama "Geneva Cross," to a very large audience. Her rendition of this character was such as to fully sustain the popularity which was accorded her for her rendition as Cora last week. This character is altogether an opposite one to that represented last week, and shows, decidedly this lady's marvelous power as an emotional actress. She is well supported by Mr. Gotthold and the Opera House Company and the play is elegantly mounted. "Geneva Cross" to night.

THE NEW CHARTER.

A Certified Copy at Last—No Material Changes from the Document Which was Sent to Harrisburg.

Yesterday afternoon, during the meeting of Councils, and while the members were all interested in the subject, a certified copy of the new City Charter mysteriously appeared on the President's desk. There was at once a general demand for its perusal, but Clerk Morrow had not anticipated such a strain upon him and had accordingly neglected to take in a sufficient supply of wind, for a battle with seven columns of reading matter. The members upon sober second thought, very mercifully agreed to relieve the trembling official, after they had been satisfied upon the one point—that the word "civil" had been inserted instead of "mechanical," in describing the class to which the Chief Engineer at the Water Works must belong.

Clerk Morrow was next made the objective point for an onslaught of expectant journalists, who bore down upon him in solid phalanx, and to whom he gracefully surrendered, yielding to inexorable fate without a murmur.

The journalists with an avidity that could only have been inspired by the dearth of other excitements, settled themselves to the pleasurable task and beguiled several hours in a perusal of the fascinating romance with a keen secret for "changes" and "alterations." The result was the discovery, upon a comparison of line upon line, that the document as certified and which bore the official seal of the Commonwealth, differed in no material point from that which passed Council and the full text of which has been published. There were some few verbal changes but they in no sense, except as has been stated above, changed the meaning of the paragraphs in which they occurred.

The only section which did undergo change after passing was Section 9th, relating to Police Justices, and in order that our readers may understand that, it is given in full, as follows:

SECTION 9. To relieve the Mayor of the duties now devolving upon him as a criminal and committing magistrate. The said Council shall have power by ordinance to divide said city into Police Districts not less than four nor more than ten in number, and at the first regular annual municipal election thereafter the qualified voters of each district so formed shall vote for one (1) person to act as a Police Justice for said district, who shall reside and exercise the duties of his office within the district in which he was elected—said election to be conducted in accordance with laws controling the election of the Mayor of said city. Said Police Justices shall be subject to removal for cause, by a two-third vote of said Councils, and if any district so framed by Councils shall have no Police Justice by reason of removal resignation or otherwise, Councils may by a majority vote of both branches, fill such vacancy until the next annual election for Councilmen, when the qualified voters of said district shall elect as aforesaid to fill the unexpired term of the person removed or whose position by another cause has become vacant, said Police Justice when thus elected, shall have, and exercise all the powers, and jurisdiction which are now by law invested in the Mayor of the city of Pittsburgh as a Criminal and Committing Magistrate, and in the civil and penal actions for the recovery of fines, penalties and forfeitures, under the laws of this Commonwealth, and the ordinances of the said city of Pittsburgh. Said Police Justices shall hold their offices for the terms to be fixed by Councils, not exceeding five years, and Councils shall provide a fixed annual salary, which shall neither be increased nor diminished during their term of office. The Police Justices shall charge and collect for the use of the city the fees now allowed by law to the Mayor of the city, a record of which shall be kept in his office, and the same shall be paid monthly into the Treasury of said city and report made monthly of the amount to the Controller of said city. The office of Deputy Mayor is hereby abolished.

There is also at the close the provision for taking a vote on consolidation next October and for taking a similar vote at other elections called for in the Charter. The instrument, however, except as we have noted, does not differ from what has already been published and commented upon until the people generally have a full understanding of the whole document, and which makes it necessary for us to burden our columns with the full text.

PERSONAL.

Dr. J. C. McCoy, who has efficiently filled the office of physician to the city, for the past year, is spoken of as a candidate for re-election.

We are indebted to Dr. N. P. Fetterman, formerly of this city, but now at Pioche, Nevada, for a lengthy narrative of the marchings, meanderings and other interesting experiences of a large prospecting party (of which he was a member), through the regions of the far West in search of what they could find in the way of the precious metals or precious stones. We regret that while Congress and our State Legislature are in session, we cannot enrich our columns with such contributions as the Doctor so kindly sends us. All we can do, is to glean from them from time to time, as we have room, items of special interest, which we propose to do. Doctor Fetterman is a son of our well known townsman, N. P. Fetterman, Esq., and has adventured into the further west in search of fame and fortune. He is a young gentleman of culture, and we will not doubt that his energy, enterprise and talent, will be rewarded with both objects of his search.

THE LIVING TELEGRAPHER.

Symptoms are the silent characters through which the diseased body telegraphs its condition. But they are not always read aright, and the medicines administered sometimes aggravate instead of relieving the complaint. Conspicuous among the instances of malpractice which are of daily occurrence, is the habit of dosing dyspeptic and constipated invalids with powerful cathartics. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, in which are skillfully blended the vegetable elements best adapted to the invigoration of the stomach and removal without violence, of regular discharges from the bowels, should be taken twice or thrice a day as a remedy for indigestion of every type, and for costiveness, whether chronic or casual. No other medicine will be required and the cure will be rapid and painless. No medicine, as yet discovered or compounded, equals Hostetter's Bitters as a specific for all affections of the liver, as well as for diseases of the stomach, the bowels and the nerves.
